Subject Appointment of a Fuel clerk (III Dn) for six months for finalisation of the work relating to Fuel supply establishment (retrenched)

Ref Order No L 5803-05/CM 24-55-133 dated Bangalore 18-8-1955 | x page 1

It is seen from the Government Order under advertance that Government were pleased to sanction the continuance of the services of fuel clerk (III Division) six months from 1-5-1955

24 AUG 1955 GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

In this connection, I may add that, as there was no provision for continuing the services of the clerk in question and also as no separate clerk has been entertained in the absence of such competent sanction of Government thereto, the services of this Fuel clerk were terminated among other officials of the Fuel supply establishment This point has already been referred to in this office letter of even number dated 3-5-1955 Out of the period of six months now sanctioned in the present Government Order for continuing the services of the official (i e from 1-5-1955) till the date of receipt of Government Order (i e , 18-8-1955) a period of 3½ months has expired and as per the instructions in the Government Order referred to, the post cannot last for more than 2½ months since nobody has actually been entertained so far As such it is felt that the residual work of the establishment cannot be finalised within this ensuing limited period of 2½ months

In these circumstances, I request you kindly to move the Government for according sanction for entertaining one (III Division) Fuel clerk for six months from the date of issue of the present Government Order at least i e , 18-8-1955 instead of 1-5-1955
